NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Manufactured News Relative to the British Minister—The War Movements in Europe—The Indian Troubles—Nicaraguan Affairs, &c.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Friday, May 27.

The dispatch from this city, stating that Sir Wm. Gore Ouseley had written a letter to our Government explaining why he had violated the instructions of his own, is not only absurd but wholly without any foundation in truth. No such letter has been received here by Lord Lyons. Equally unfounded is the report, from the same source, that Lord Lyons had expressed the opinion that the British Minister in Mexico would recognize the Juarez Government. His Lordship, I have reason to believe, has expressed no opinion on the subject, nor has he received any information justifying the forming of one.

Dispatches received at several of the foreign legations here account for the strange movements of the Austrian troops. The Austrian General condemning the plan of the campaign adopted, Austria determined to withdraw all her troops again within her own territory and remodel the programme. At a diplomatic dinner given by the Secretary of State yesterday, this view of the singular fact was concurred in by all present.

Letters from Lord Napier report himself and family at Lady Julia Lockwood's, the mother of Lady Bayard, in Devonshire. They reached England in eighteen days, after a delightful voyage.

Official dispatches to the Indian Bureau report serious troubles with the Indians surrounding some of the reservations. The new Superintendent for the Pueblos has not arrived out, being detained on the Isthmus.

No dispatch had been received up to this afternoon from Nicaragua, either by the State Department or by General Jesus. Private letters received by the latter state that the Daily contract was approved only after Congress had made all the changes they desired. Official dispatches are expected by to-night's mail. General Jesus leaves on the steamer of the 5th June for Nicaragua. Q.

[UNDER THE EDITORIAL HEAD OF OUR ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

WASHINGTON, Friday, May 27.

The Presidents of several of the Railroad companies whose lines extend from Weldon to Charleston, together with the President of the Fernandina Railroad Company, are now here on business relative to the Great Southern Mail; their object being to enter into arrangements with the Post-office Department for transporting it more expeditiously, especially between New-Orleans and New-York, avoiding the failures which are now so frequent.

It has been stated that Lord Lyons is of opinion that the British Minister in Mexico will soon, if he has not done so already, recognize the Juarez Government, and that it is understood he has instructions to that effect, but there is no foundation for this statement, as it is reliably ascertained that Lord Lyons has no information respecting the intentions of Her Majesty's Government with regard to the contending parties in Mexico, and has expressed no opinion on the subject.

Arrival of the Overland Mail.

INDIAN DISTURBANCES ALONG THE ROUTE—MURDER OF MEXICANS BY AMERICANS.

From the St. Louis Democrat.

The Overland Mail which left San Francisco on the 20 inst., arrived last night.

Mr. J. E. Wise came through from San Francisco by the mail, and Mr. Wm. McGeever from Fort Fillmore.

By the former we learn some news which may not be uninteresting to our readers.

Mr. Wise informs us that the excitement on the borders of Sonora and Arizona continued. It will be remembered that the Mexicans expelled several Americans from Sonora on account of alleged filibustering.

In addition to outrages formerly published, it was reported at Tucson on the 11th inst., that three Mexican traders who had crossed the line with a band of peace mules bound to California, had been killed by Americans. A company from Fort Buchanan had been dispatched to the scene where the murder is said to have been committed. The difficulties all arise from the fear of the Sonorians that a filibuster expedition is about to enter their territory.

The Gila "gold diggins" have about dried up. Several miners came from Gila City to Tucson by this mail. About 75 miners still remain, but would gladly leave had they the means to do so. It was stated that on account of WALKER's had been among the disappointed miners enrolling volunteers for an expected filibuster movement, whether for Sonora or Lower California.

At Apache Pass the Indians were expected every day. Capt. Bonnycastle, from a cattle-stealing expedition, had had several fights with warriors and had left previously and sent couriers forward for provisions, who arrived at Apache Pass on the 16th, bringing with them a Mexican boy about 12 years of age as prisoner. This boy was about to be killed, when the Overland Mail Company's Agent ransomed him for 12 sacks of corn. The Indians at the station near the Pass had been very defiant and troublesome, and a request had been made by the station-keeper for a half a dozen soldiers to assist in protecting the property. A party of whites were recently interrupted in cutting wood, by the Indians, and prevented by them from carrying it to the station.

The trip from San Francisco to El Paso was made in ten days thirteen hours and ten minutes; and from El Paso to St. Louis in eleven days eleven hours and thirty minutes, having been delayed by the storm at Fort Smith some twelve hours.

Mr. McGeever reports that Company C Mounted Rifles, under command of Lieuts. Hill and McNeill, had been ordered on the trail of some Indians who had stolen from Mr. Augustus Aguarra, about two and a half miles from Fort Fillmore, thirty-three head of brood mares. The robbery occurred on the evening of the 20th. The Indians have been very troublesome of late to the vicinity of Fort Fillmore.

NEW-JERSEY PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CONVENTION

From Our Own Correspondent.

BURLINGTON, N. J., Friday, May 27, 1859.

Apparently, this morning, the Convention was as far from the election of a Bishop as it was when it commenced balloting at 2 P. M., yesterday. When the Convention adjourned, at 11 o'clock last evening, ten unsuccessful ballots had been had. Immediately after the tenth ballot Dr. L. S. Cornell, of Fort Lee, moved that a committee of conference be appointed to present some name which could be united on by all parties, and communicate it privately to the members of the Convention before the opening of the morning session.

CORTLANDT PARKER, Esq., said that if ever he had prayed fervently in his life, it was when he joined with the Convention in silent prayer before they proceeded to the election. The laity had expressed, with a strong voice, their preference for a gentleman who had no superior, and hardly a peer. Although he represented a Church which expected to pay one-fifteenth part of the expenses of the Diocese, yet there was every disposition on his part to acquiesce in any choice which the Convention, under God, should make. He hoped that the voice of the laity would be hearkened to.

Mr. PARKER, in the midst of his speech, was called to order by Judge OGDEN, of Elizabeth, on the ground that any discussion of the character of a candidate was clearly out of order under the rules which had been adopted. Mr. PARKER finished a sentence in which the character of the candidate whom he supported was commended, and then sat down.

The Convention immediately adjourned.

This morning, at 9 o'clock, prayers were said in St. Mary's Church, and, half an hour after, the President called the Convention to order in the Chapel.

Dr. CORNELL withdrew his motion in favor of a Committee of Conference, and the Convention proceeded to the

During the recess the supporters of the Rev. Dr. MAHAN met in conference, the Rev. Mr. FISCH presiding. It was exclusively an assemblage of the High Church Party.

The Rev. Dr. MAHAN begged his friends to allow him to withdraw his name from before the Convention, as he had for some time desired to do. This was finally agreed to, and it was proposed successively that the Rev. Dr. MORGAN DIX, of Trinity Church, New-York City; the Rev. Dr. TUCKER, of Troy, N. Y.; the Rev. Dr. KERFOOT, of Maryland, and the Rev. Dr. COX, of Maryland, be put forward as the candidates of the High Church Party. Each of these seemed to have an equal number of supporters, who put their claims fully before the Conference. After considerable discussion it was agreed that the Rev. Dr. ODENHEIMER, the candidate who, next to Drs. MAHAN and LITTLEJOHN, had received the largest number of votes on the last ballots, should be supported by the friends of Dr. MAHAN.

As soon as the members of the Convention reassembled, the Rev. Dr. MAHAN rose and said that before proceeding to a new ballot, he begged leave to make one or two remarks which were called for at this moment. On the occurrence of the melancholy event which had deprived them of the beloved head of this Diocese, the first thought that had presented itself to his mind related to the best manner in which the place left vacant might be filled, and a resolution was formed in his mind that whatever might seem, on the whole, to be the best plan for reconciling all interests and securing unanimity, he would give his whole heart and soul to. Peculiar circumstances had surrounded him, which had made it improper for him to take an active part in the choice of a Bishop. Those circumstances no longer existed, and now he was left at liberty to act on his own impulses. He desired, therefore, to withdraw his name as a candidate for the vacant office. He would say something further if it were not contrary to the rule of order which forbid the discussion of the character of the candidates. He would only say that of the names which were before the Convention on the last ballot there was one that he could vote for heartily, and which he sincerely desired would receive the votes of the Convention.

The Rev. JAMES J. BOWERS, of Jersey City, said that he desired that there should be no misunderstanding of the motives by which those who were personal friends of Dr. MAHAN, but had voted against him, had acted. He was one of those who had known Dr. MAHAN almost from his boyhood, and had always esteemed him very highly, but he had felt constrained to vote against him. He had been moved simply by this motive: A desire to elect some gentleman who had had no connection with former matters in this diocese. Had it not been for that, he believed that Dr. MAHAN would have received strong support from quarters in which he had been opposed. He felt that it was due to himself, and those with whom he acted, to make this statement. He had come to this Convention desiring without prejudice to select a man, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, around whom all could rally.

The next ballot decided the matter; as soon as it had proceeded far enough to indicate what the result would be, the excitement which had kept all silent began to manifest itself in a confused hum, half the members of the Convention were standing, and the President was compelled to call them to order before the announcement of the result of the

The Rev. Dr. WILLIAMSON, the President, immediately declared that the Rev. WM. HENRY ODENHEIMER, D. D. was Bishop elect of New-Jersey.

The Rev. Dr. MAHAN moved that his election be declared unanimous. It was carried unanimously.

The Rev. Dr. E. A. HOFFMAN moved that a Committee of three clergymen and two laymen be appointed to wait on the Bishop elect and inform him of his election. The motion was carried and the following Committee was appointed: The Rev. Dr. Mahan, the Rev. Dr. Hoffman, and the Rev. Dr. Garrison, of the clergy; Abraham Browning, Esq., and Richard B. Field, Esq., of the laity.

The Rev. Mr. DUNN said they had now elected a Bishop of the Diocese. It would be remembered that the Reverend Father who had been taken from among them had died on this day of the month, and at about this hour, 12½ o'clock. He moved, therefore, that they unite in singing the Gloria in excelsis.

The members of the Convention immediately arose, and, with the accompaniment of female voices in the gallery, sang the anthem.

The Rev. Dr. MAHAN offered the customary resolution directing the Standing Committee of the Diocese to take the necessary measures for the consecration of the new Bishop, and

The Rev. Dr. HOFFMAN offered a resolution directing that the testimonials in regard to the election of Bishop ODENHEIMER be signed by the clergy of the Convention.

Both resolutions were carried.

The clergy, as their names were called, came forward and signed the testimonials. Judge OGDEN said they had elected a Bishop, but had not provided for his support. The Bishop's Fund,—composed of annual contributions from the different parishes, invested in real estate and the interest paid to the Bishop yearly—amounted to $12,000 in round numbers, and would be available in money and good securities on the 29th of July next. He desired to suggest that the amount of the Bishop's salary should be determined before the Convention adjourned, or else our Bishop would not be placed in a proper position with respect to accepting or declining the position. The Rev. Mr. SHERMAN, of Belleville, read the canons which fix the income of the Bishop. They declare that he shall receive $2,400 per annum, and $6 for every visitation to a parish for traveling expenses. According to these provisions, Mr. SHERMAN said, if the new Bishop devoted himself to the duties of his office he would have a sufficiently large income; but if he came in and attended to other things he must look to other things for his support.

Judge OGDEN did not see any motion at this time, to make, but merely desired to call the attention of the Convention to the subject.

The Rev. MESSRS. ELLERY, CLAY, MARSHALL and FISH were appointed Trustees of the Theological Seminary in New-York, to fill vacancies, and the eight Trustees in office during the past year were reappointed; these appointments are made subject to the confirmation or rejection of the General Episcopal Convention of the United States, which meets in October at Richmond, Va.

JOSEPH W. ALSOP, Esq., of Newark, Treasurer of the Diocese, presented his report. The present amount of the Episcopal Fund is $12,000. The present amount of Bishop's salary is $4,000. The receipts last year for missions were $2,082 75 and the expenditures $1,833 65. The amount received for assessments for the Episcopal Fund was $676 72. The report was referred to the Rev. Messrs. HOFFMAN and COX, to audit and certify.

An amendment to the Constitution, limiting the number of delegates to any convention of the Diocese to three from each church, was adopted. At the present Convention some churches are represented by ten or more delegates, though each church casts one vote only.

The Convention then at 2½ o'clock adjourned.

At 4½ P. M. the afternoon session commenced.

The following deputies to the General Convention were elected:

Clergy—The Rev. Dr. Milo Mahan, the Rev. Dr. A. Stubbs, the Rev. C. Dana, and the Rev. John Kelly.

Laity—D. B. Ryall, the Hon. J. W. Miller, J. M. Thompson, M. D., Judge T. F. Carpenter.

The following supplemental deputies were chosen:

Laity—S. V. Hoffman, J. W. Cassil, H. McFarlane, the Hon. B. Williamson.

The Rev. Mr. BOWMAN offered a resolution directing that a Committee of seven be appointed to inquire into the expediency of applying to the Legislature for a charter to incorporate seven Trustees of the Diocese. It was adopted.

Judge OGDEN offered a resolution requesting the Rev. Dr. MAHAN to furnish the Convention with a copy of his sermon on the late Bishop DOANE for publication. It was adopted unanimously.

The Rev. Mr. BOWMAN offered a resolution in favor of amending the canons so as to increase the salary of the Bishop to $3,000 per annum, payable quarterly. It was carried unanimously.

A vote of thanks was presented to the Chairman and Secretaries for their faithful discharge of their duties, the members of the Convention united in religious services, and at a few minutes before 7 P. M. adjourned sine die.

To this quiet old town, which has rested here on the banks of the Delaware, always about as large and as little visited by strong excitements as when WILLIAM PENN lived here and only Quakers were seen in the streets, the occasion of the assemblage of a Convention which has the disposal of such important interests as that which has been in session here the past three days is one which interests all the inhabitants and makes them patient, but eager and constant spectators whenever there is anything going on. Daily they have attended the Convention in throngs. The town has seldom been so full of strangers. Over the railroad which decorates the beautiful main street crowds of strangers have been brought hither, and the proprietor of Belding's Hotel—the largest in town,—has been compelled to "double" many of his guests at private houses in the vicinity. To-day, after the election of the Bishop, more than half of the delegates returned home, and now the Sabbath stillness which usually prevails here will resume its reign.

The newly-elected Bishop is between forty and forty-five years of age, and, if I am rightly informed, was born in Philadelphia. His father, a well-to-do merchant of that city, is still living. He was educated at the Protestant Episcopal Theological Seminary, in the City of New-York, and from there returned to Philadelphia, where, nearly twenty years ago, he became connected with St. Peter's Church, as assistant to the Rev. Dr. DELANCY, who was then its rector. Six months afterward Dr. DELANCY was elected Bishop of Western New-York, and Dr. ODENHEIMER succeeded him, as rector of St. Peter's Church, which has been his parochial charge ever since. Five years ago he went abroad, and spent eighteen months in traveling in Europe and the Holy Land. On his return he published a book, describing what he had seen on his travels. He has published several small works on Education and Theology. He is a fine-looking man—stout, erect, and intellectual-looking. He is of medium stature, and dignified carriage. He is eloquent in the pulpit, eminently social in private life, and is exceedingly popular with the clergy of Pennsylvania and with his own congregation. He is a High-Churchman. His consecration cannot take place until after his confirmation by the General Convention in October. It is probable that the ceremony will be performed at the General Convention immediately after the confirmation.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Old-School Presbyterian General Assembly at Indianapolis.

Correspondence of the New-York Times.

INDIANAPOLIS, Monday, May 23—P. M.

The Assembly is much pressed for room. There are three hundred and forty Commissioners now present, and these, with the train that usually follows in the track of such bodies, with the curious in this city superadded, make the Third Church (though it will seat 800 persons) a very hot place. I have just come from trying to get to hear the Rev. Dr. PALMER, of New-Orleans, preach the annual sermon on Foreign Missions. I was much disappointed when, at a station as we passed along, this already distinguished man was pointed out to me. He had all the abandon of the Southern gentleman, as he puffed his cigar into the morning air. His stature is below the average height, and his features resemble, in many respects, the portraits I have seen of JOHN PHILPOT CURRAN. He has not a Caucasian type of beauty about him, but, like CURRAN, he has the black eye sparkling like a diamond, and as his soul flashes forth in his seasons of inspiration, he proclaims that he is more than the ordinary measure of a man. He is not more than thirty-five years old in appearance. He may be forty. I am glad to find a young man raising his head among the elders. Why should not more of the young men speak out? Youth is the season for genius and heroism. By the way, we must not forget that this was the day for receiving the report of the

FOREIGN BOARD.

Its financial condition is all that could be expected. The receipts from all sources, including $16,112 97 special funds for India, have been $230,620 97. Their Missionaries cover nearly all the available points of the Missionary field. They are arranging to take advantage of the opening of China and Japan, and at home they follow in the track of the red man, and teach him the arts of agriculture and the advantages of settled homes. They build schools for the young savages, and with the exception of the hunting seasons, the Missionary has pretty uniform success in his labors. It is interesting to know that many have said, like the Chief SHENANDOAH, "I am an aged hemlock, (he was 120 years old,) I am dead at the top—let me die, and lay me beside my Pastor, that I may rise with him at the resurrection." Dr. LOWRIE, the Secretary, advocated the cause with great power—a power which lay not in words, but in the unspoken but deeply felt associations of the man. His brother fell on the field, murdered by men fiercer than wild beasts, and then was he urging men to go to preach the Gospel of Salvation to the very murderers of his brother. The assembly heard as it were a voice from the most excellent glory, "Forgive them for they know not what they do." The meaning of the Indian outpost is not a mere abstract superstition to them. The Church, thank God, has still her soldiers of the Cross, men who fear not the face of man or devils if the Captain of the Lord's Host point the way.

THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION

Presented their report to the Assembly, wherein it appeared that over $200,243 were collected during the past year. The Old School Assembly is one of the most independent denominations in existence. She wants no Sunday School Unions, and Home and Foreign Christian Unions, and Tract Societies, and General Missionary Societies to assist her in her mighty ecclesiastical enterprise. She covers the world with her Boards of Foreign and Domestic Missions. She provides literature, whether tracts or Sunday School books, or the higher order of orthodox libraries, through her Board of Publication. Her Board of Education assists her needy students in preparing for the ministry, and superintends generally Seminary training. All that was required to render the system complete, seemed to be this Committee for building churches. Its head-quarters are in St. Louis, and it is to be hoped it will grow strong and be successful in its department. Mr. H. VANDYKE, of Brooklyn, wished to push a resolution which would discountenance forever indiscriminate clerical begging for building churches. He said it subjected the cause and the man to much insult and contumely, and he hoped there would be an end of it. He said he had once in his life committed the sin he was deploring, but if the Lord would forgive him, he would never commit it again. Judge BUSH and others from the West earnestly opposed Mr. VANDYKE's resolution. They said it was but a scheme to save the pockets of a parcel of stingy rich people in New-York and elsewhere, and they protested against such a miserable minority dictating laws that would paralyze the benevolence of the whole Church. After a discussion, long and animated, the Assembly approved, in the ordinary manner, the report of the Committee, but the clerical mendicants they permitted to rosin it all their former glorious independence. Let them go forth, slay, and eat, for the whole land is yet before them.

THE NORTHWESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

In accordance with the resolutions introduced by the Committee on Seminaries, this institution was formally taken under the care and made subject to the control of the Assembly. This Seminary has been a fruitful source of newspaper and other controversy for a long time. The intitled reader will know all about it; and it would not be for general edification to enter into details in this place. Suffice it to say, that, after its adoption as one of the institutions of the Church, the great and dividing question remained to be settled—where it should be located. This whole district, extending I know not how far, but to the extent, as some speakers said, even of a modern empire, is up in arms on this question of location. Like as Rome and Constantinople in ancient days contended for the supremacy of their respective hierarchies, so do, this day, Chicago and Indianapolis contend their claims to be the seats of this "School of the Prophets." Now are the arguments on either side to be considered. They are of an order of application which no common person possesses. Money is the power and point of the reasoning on both sides. We wish we could read it in the old way, though it is a losing way, "When Greek meets Greek, then comes the tug of war." I wish these cities would tell us that "Jesus," not "money," is the word, had it as have the pleasure of illustrating them classically, for it sounds so wretchedly, how the contest goes upon Gold meets Gold. On the part of Chicago, one JOHN MCCORMICK, a man who has made a million by a patent for a reaping machine, offers $100,000, to be paid in deferred instalments, provided $100 appropriated to the endowment of four professors, and provided, also, that the Seminary building be within the precincts, or within a mile and a half of the west precincts of the City of Chicago. Forty acres of land, valued, according to Dr. RICE, $50,000, were also offered, on the condition that buildings would be erected at a cost of, at least, $50,000.

On the part of Indianapolis the three friends of the heavenly offered.....$25,000
The citizens of Indianapolis.....25,000
From other sources.....4,000
With land by the Rev. W. A. HALLIDAY, worth 10,000

After the reading of the respective documents bearing on these matters, the debate opened by a speech from Mr. BURNER, an Elder residing in Indianapolis. He had a very slender opinion of that infidel—the smokehouse—that bubble called the City of Chicago. It was no place, in his estimation, for the location of any substantial institution. And he rather suspected that the glory of God was not the only motive of the millionaire of that quarter, &c., &c., and wound up by commending Indianapolis as already an established Presbyterian city, and the likely to meet its wants to meet the demands of the Church in the premises.

Dr. RICE, who it is said was brought from St. Louis with this Seminary in view, was the next speaker. He ably discussed the rival claims of the two rival cities. He said Indianapolis was as ways situated for a Seminary. It was neither small enough nor large enough. It had all the disadvantages of a village and none of the advantages of a great city. A sort of babbletonry, neither man nor boy, affair. He would either go to the pure country or to the great thoroughfares of men, and he preferred Chicago, because it was unquestionably a great and abiding metropolis, not to be blown away like a cloud or to be bursted like a bubble, but destined to endure for generations as the pride and glory of the great Northwest.

While Dr. RICE was speaking the Assembly adjourned till 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

ANTI-FUGITIVE-SLAVE-LAW CONVENTION.

Great Demonstration at Cleveland—Speeches of Gov. Chase, Senator Wade, and Others—A Declaration.

The Mass Convention of the opponents of the Fugitive Slave law, called to meet in Cleveland on the 24th May, organized by the choice of the Hon. JOSHUA R. GIDDINGS as President. The attendance was very large, and the proceedings enthusiastic. Among the speakers were Gov. CHASE and Senator WADE, of Ohio.

We copy from the Cleveland Herald:

The Elyria train brought in six loaded cars, and in about half an hour afterwards the train from Oberlin brought in thirteen loaded cars. Seven crowded cars came in on the Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati Railroad. From the Lake Shore Railroad came in sixteen carloads of delegates to the Convention. The Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad brought in five carloads, and the Cleveland and Mahoning Railroad brought nine crowded cars. The railroads to-day did not bring less than 2,500 people to the Convention.

The delegates from the Eastern lake shore towns, from Wellington and from Oberlin, with their neighboring towns, formed in procession at the depôts, and marched to the public Square.

Letters were received from the Hon. CASSIUS M. CLAY, the Hon. WM. DENNISON, Jr., of Columbus, THOMAS BROOKES of Cincinnati, PHILIP DORSHEIMER of Buffalo, JAS. A. BIRGES of New-York, and others.

The Hon. EDWARD WADE made a brief speech, full of telling hits and good humor. Mr. WADE has no very exalted opinion of Chief Justice TANEY and the pliant majority of his Bench. He spoke of the Fugitive Slave law, its nature, its constitutionality, and its binding force. Because a Judge, not in the line of his judicial duty, pronounces an unconstitutional law, that does not make it law. It is not to make the law but to look at it as it has been made. What is the Supreme Court, asked that learned Justice TANEY? Why! it was the crowd—could look in upon the Supreme Court, as I have done, and I tell you that many heads of wenches would fall right in. (Laughter.) You have seen, in passing farmers' barns in the early times of the country, the sides of his barn and out-buildings covered with the skins of coons and other animals. The Supreme Court has much the same appearance and the same nature as these dried parchments.

Mr. GIDDINGS made a long speech, advocating immediate action in regard to suing out a writ of habeas corpus for the release of the untried prisoners. During the course of his remarks he asked all who were willing to submit to tyranny to speak. There was a dead silence. The question was then put as to their disposition to resist tyranny after all legal means had failed, and a thundering "Yes" came up from all the crowd. Mr. GIDDINGS said he should like to hear that voice in every dale and forest in the land, chasing the Democratic Party to the very gates of hell itself. For the benefit of the Democrats present he would say he was willing to try every legal means before proceeding to the last extremity.

Mr. GIDDINGS added:

"I would not wait one hour for the decision of the Supreme Court, but would obtain process from the nearest judicial officer, and if I could direct its proceedings, would have the prisoners brought at once to the stand, and there, in the presence of the people, would have them released, that all may witness the process by which citizens of Ohio are set at liberty when imprisoned under the Fugitive act."

[In a subsequent note, addressed to the Cleveland Leader, Mr. GIDDINGS defines his exact position:]

"My position has been, now is, and probably will be while I live, that when the forms of law shall fail, and peaceful resources exhausted, I would maintain the liberties of our citizens against the Fugitive act by force."

At this point Governor CHASE arrived, and his appearance was greeted with tumultuous cheering.

J. M. ROOT addressed the meeting. He said that the Fugitive Slave Law was not passed to catch runaway niggers, but to humiliate the North—to make it eat dirt.

SPEECH OF GOVERNOR CHASE.

Governor CHASE came forward, and was received with tremendous applause. Waiting a few moments for the excitement to subside, he commenced as follows:

FELLOW-CITIZENS: A few hours ago I was sitting in my office at Columbus, not expecting to meet you here to-day. But having received a summons to attend this meeting, I felt that it was my duty to be here, and I have, therefore, come. I have not come to speak to you words of excitement, nor to urge you to anything that you may hereafter have occasion to regret. In every juncture there are two courses open for adoption—the right and the wrong.

The American people have the power in their own hands through the ballot-box, to proceed in a lawful manner to repeal a bad law, and if necessary to reform law-makers and law breakers. You can do it all, and therefore it is not necessary to resort to any course of action that we cannot at all times carry on in a proper manner. What is the state of this case? Men whom we all know and honor, are incarcerated in yonder jail for doing what they believed to be right, and what not one man in ten thousand can place his hand on his heart and say is not morally right. This is a great wrong, but what is the true method of redress? We must look at our own Government in the proper light. It is a sovereign State, one of several States forming a general confederation. It exists under a Federal Government and under a State Government. Now the Federal Court may do wrong, as even a State Government may do wrong, but it is a Government that we ourselves have made. If it does wrong, we must turn out the members of that Government and put in men who will conform to the wishes of the people who elected them. So with our State Government. If State officers fail to do their duty, let them be dismissed and proper men put in their places.

The Federal Court, in prosecuting and punishing our incarcerated friends, is acting under the provisions of the Fugitive slave Act. What is our redress? In the first place, it is to defend them, as they have been defended, ably and eloquently, before the Court where they have been indicted. Some persons claim that the law itself is unconstitutional. If improperly made, as claimed, it is no law, and every step taken under it is a nullity. The proper course, under this impression, is, to apply to our own tribunals for relief.

I will not argue the constitutionality of that law. I was present at its passage, and believed then, as I believe now, that not to be more a symbol of practical sovereignty of the Slave States over the Free States than a means of reclamation of fugitive slaves.

The case of our incarcerated friends has been brought before the Courts of the State. These Courts have a perfect right to carry their decrees into action.

I do not wish to say, nor is it proper for you to say, what the decision of our Court should be in the case. That is left for the members of the Court themselves to determine. It is a matter between them, the people and their God. I will only say, what I have frequently said before, that as long as the State of Ohio remains a sovereignty, and as long as I am her Chief Executive officer, the decisions of her Courts shall be executed. The process of the United States Courts must not be slighted or resisted; but as long as I possess the sovereignty of our State, I will see that the process of our State Courts shall not be interfered with or resisted, but shall be fully enforced.

If the process of the United States Court is obnoxious to us, let it be remembered that before long we shall have a chance to appoint some one else to succeed Presidents, Governors, Judges, Congress. The process may possibly be too slow to suit some of our more ardent friends, but it will be accomplished in due time. There may be some who will not "move," in the word, had it as have the pleasure of illustrating them classically, for it sounds so wretchedly, how the contest goes upon Gold meets Gold. On the part of Chicago, one JOHN MCCORMICK, a man who has made a million by a patent for a reaping machine, offers $100,000, to be paid in deferred instalments, provided $100 appropriated to the endowment of four professors, and provided, also, that the Seminary building be within the precincts, or within a mile and a half of the west precincts of the City of Chicago. Forty acres of land, valued, according to Dr. RICE, $50,000, were also offered, on the condition that buildings would be erected at a cost of, at least, $50,000.

On the part of Indianapolis the three friends of the heavenly offered.....$25,000
The citizens of Indianapolis.....25,000
From other sources.....4,000
With land by the Rev. W. A. HALLIDAY, worth 10,000

After the reading of the respective documents bearing on these matters, the debate opened by a speech from Mr. BURNER, an Elder residing in Indianapolis. He had a very slender opinion of that infidel—the smokehouse—that bubble called the City of Chicago. It was no place, in his estimation, for the location of any substantial institution. And he rather suspected that the glory of God was not the only motive of the millionaire of that quarter, &c., &c., and wound up by commending Indianapolis as already an established Presbyterian city, and the likely to meet its wants to meet the demands of the Church in the premises.

Dr. RICE, who it is said was brought from St. Louis with this Seminary in view, was the next speaker. He ably discussed the rival claims of the two rival cities. He said Indianapolis was as ways situated for a Seminary. It was neither small enough nor large enough. It had all the disadvantages of a village and none of the advantages of a great city. A sort of babbletonry, neither man nor boy, affair. He would either go to the pure country or to the great thoroughfares of men, and he preferred Chicago, because it was unquestionably a great and abiding metropolis, not to be blown away like a cloud or to be bursted like a bubble, but destined to endure for generations as the pride and glory of the great Northwest.

While Dr. RICE was speaking the Assembly adjourned till 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

ANTI-FUGITIVE-SLAVE-LAW CONVENTION.

The Mass Convention of the opponents of the Fugitive Slave law, called to meet in Cleveland on the 24th May, organized by the choice of the Hon. JOSHUA R. GIDDINGS as President. The attendance was very large, and the proceedings enthusiastic. Among the speakers were Gov. CHASE and Senator WADE, of Ohio.

We copy from the Cleveland Herald:

The Elyria train brought in six loaded cars, and in about half an hour afterwards the train from Oberlin brought in thirteen loaded cars. Seven crowded cars came in on the Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati Railroad. From the Lake Shore Railroad came in sixteen carloads of delegates to the Convention. The Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad brought in five carloads, and the Cleveland and Mahoning Railroad brought nine crowded cars. The railroads to-day did not bring less than 2,500 people to the Convention.

Letters were received from the Hon. CASSIUS M. CLAY, the Hon. WM. DENNISON, Jr., of Columbus, THOMAS BROOKES of Cincinnati, PHILIP DORSHEIMER of Buffalo, JAS. A. BIRGES of New-York, and others.

The Hon. EDWARD WADE made a brief speech, full of telling hits and good humor. Mr. WADE has no very exalted opinion of Chief Justice TANEY and the pliant majority of his Bench. He spoke of the Fugitive Slave law, its nature, its constitutionality, and its binding force. Because a Judge, not in the line of his judicial duty, pronounces an unconstitutional law, that does not make it law. It is not to make the law but to look at it as it has been made. What is the Supreme Court, asked that learned Justice TANEY? Why! it was the crowd—could look in upon the Supreme Court, as I have done, and I tell you that many heads of wenches would fall right in. (Laughter.) You have seen, in passing farmers' barns in the early times of the country, the sides of his barn and out-buildings covered with the skins of coons and other animals. The Supreme Court has much the same appearance and the same nature as these dried parchments.

Mr. GIDDINGS made a long speech, advocating immediate action in regard to suing out a writ of habeas corpus for the release of the untried prisoners. During the course of his remarks he asked all who were willing to submit to tyranny to speak. There was a dead silence. The question was then put as to their disposition to resist tyranny after all legal means had failed, and a thundering "Yes" came up from all the crowd. Mr. GIDDINGS said he should like to hear that voice in every dale and forest in the land, chasing the Democratic Party to the very gates of hell itself. For the benefit of the Democrats present he would say he was willing to try every legal means before proceeding to the last extremity.

Mr. GIDDINGS added:

"I would not wait one hour for the decision of the Supreme Court, but would obtain process from the nearest judicial officer, and if I could direct its proceedings, would have the prisoners brought at once to the stand, and there, in the presence of the people, would have them released, that all may witness the process by which citizens of Ohio are set at liberty when imprisoned under the Fugitive act."

[In a subsequent note, addressed to the Cleveland Leader, Mr. GIDDINGS defines his exact position:]

"My position has been, now is, and probably will be while I live, that when the forms of law shall fail, and peaceful resources exhausted, I would maintain the liberties of our citizens against the Fugitive act by force."

At this point Governor CHASE arrived, and his appearance was greeted with tumultuous cheering.

J. M. ROOT addressed the meeting. He said that the Fugitive Slave Law was not passed to catch runaway niggers, but to humiliate the North—to make it eat dirt.

CITY INTELLIGENCE

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

AN OLD ACQUAINTANCE IN A NEW DRESS.—The Steamer C. Vanderbilt, it will be remembered, was laid Winter "head on Flinder's Island, during a heavy storm in June, and the incidents connected with the escape of her passengers were for some time the theme of many thrilling fabrications. After being several times condemned as "broken up" and a "total loss," the persevering agents of the Company went quietly to work, and by great effort, and a heavy outlay in money, got her afloat once more, and she was towed in the fall and hauled upon the railway at Hunter's Point. Here she was thoroughly inspected, and, though found to be considerably damaged, she was not so much so as to prevent them from making her a good and a serviceable boat. She has been entirely rebuilt from her Keelsons: her bottom frame was supplied with new timbers, and she was planked up to her beads, caulked and coppered. Her frames were put in, the decks newly pointed, and the state-room saloon, most of which was washed away, is entirely new, the original arrangement only being preserved, with the addition of some extra accommodations. The ship-carpenter's work was done by Jesse Hoxie, and the joiner's work by Isaac Cozzens, the whole having been under the superintendence of Jacob H. Vanderveer, at an outlay of some eighty thousand dollars. In short, the C. Vanderbilt, which was always a favorite on the Sound, takes her place once more on the old route, with her teeth renewed, and as strong as she was when first launched. Such is a new pair of bellers, Messrs. Hunter & Co., and her engines have been put in perfect order. Much of her furniture is new.

[illegible] Chancellor was let go free, on giving bail to answer for assaulting his wife. The arrest of Chancellor was curiously brought about. He formerly resided in Robinson-street, and about a year ago was compelled to marry a young Irish girl for having been too intimate with her, but did not live happily with her. Becoming enraged at her a few days ago, he seized a chair, knocked her to the floor, and and every thing, thinking that he had killed her. He applied for work at No. 22 West Broadway, and through his hasting in changing his clothes and muttering in his sleep, about killing his wife, he was arrested. The wife of the Philadelphian, previously reported as having eloped with a Frenchman, and fled to this City, and who was stated to be missing, made her appearance yesterday at the Eleventh Ward Station-house. The husband of the woman also made his appearance, and despite the almost discovered, a reconciliation was soon effected. Elizabeth McKinney, a young woman about twenty years old, who lived with her mother in Essex-street, is the only female known to be missing in the Eleventh Ward. She had been seduced and was enceinte. Her mother fears that her seducer may have murdered her; and that the remains found in the vault in Columbia-street may be hers.

AN ELOPEMENT AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.—On the 31st of April a German married woman named Francesca Sommers, aged 36, residing at No. 66 Chrystie-street, (third floor,) eloped with a young German named CHARLES BAUER alias C. LOEB. The unfortunate woman took with her three children, aged respectively 16, 6 and 4 years, and also $300 of her husband's money, acquired by the savings of three years on a salary of $9 per week. The Wednesday night following the 27th inst., an attempt was made to fire the premises of the husband, Mr. Sommers, by pouring alcohol and camphene under the door and then firing it; but a daughter of Sommers waking up, jumped out of bed and extinguished the fire by pouring on the flames the contents of a wash-tub that stood near the door. No tidings were heard of the guilty woman. On Thursday one of the little boys who accompanied the woman went to a neighbor's of the husband's and said his mother had returned and was at a German hotel, at No. 32 William-street. Detectives JOHN H. SMITH and SAMPSON were informed of the fact, arrested her and took her to the Police headquarters. The injured husband was sent for, when a most affecting scene ensued which ended by Sommers forgiving the woman, and they returned home together. The woman had only got 10 left, and said her paramour abused her horribly, and ran away from her at Montrose, Va.

RE-DISTRICTING THE CITY.—It is claimed that the Registry Law, passed at the late session of the Legislature, will make it necessary to re-district the City, some of the districts, as limited at present, contain so large a number of voters that it is feared all would not be able to record their names in the time required by law. To obviate this difficulty it is proposed to diminish the size of the largest districts—those, for instance, which contain between seven and eight hundred voters—so that the average number shall not exceed five hundred at most. The population has increased so rapidly in the upper Wards that, it is claimed, this will be especially necessary in that section of the City. The lower Wards will probably remain as they are. The Joint Committee of the Common Council, having this matter in charge, met yesterday afternoon and adjourned, after taking steps preliminary to proceeding with the work.

SUICIDE OF AN EX-NOTARY OF PARIS.—LOUIS BERNIER, a Frenchman, who as a notaire in Paris during the revolution of 1848 had the signing of death-warrants, committed suicide on Thursday evening, at No. 79 West Broadway, by taking arsenic. At an inquisition held yesterday on the body, it appeared in addition to the fact already stated, that the deceased came to this country about three years ago, and that he had lived mainly upon the contributions of his former friends in Paris. Latterly these contributions fell off, and he became very despondent in consequence. At the time of his death he was living with a man whose death warrant he had signed, but was so fortunate as to escape. He was nearly fifty years old and had no family. Aside from his pecuniary embarrassment no cause is assigned for his committing suicide.

COMMISSIONERS OF HEALTH.—The Commissioners met yesterday noon. President COMBES, to whom was referred the slaughter-house No. 176 East Twenty-eighth-street, which had been complained of as a nuisance, reported that he had visited the premises and directed the necessary measures to be taken to abate it. CHARLES DIXON petitioned to be appointed temporary Health Warden in the Twentieth Ward. Referred to the Mayor. JOHN WEBB, No. 823 Ninth-street, called attention to a nuisance in that neighborhood, and DE WITT & BOSS, to one existing in the rear of the premises Nos. 107 and 109 John-street. They were referred to the Health Wardens of the respective localities for correction.

AN INSANE MAN ATTEMPTS TO MURDER HIS WIFE.—Two Policemen of the Sixth Precinct, while returning to their homes up town at 6 o'clock Thursday morning, heard cries of "Murder" proceeding from a house at No. 122 East Thirty-first-street. They rushed into the house and found JOHN TRACY about to plunge a knife into the bosom of his wife. The officers shook the man down with their clubs and secured him. He was afterwards taken to the Lunatic Asylum as it was found he was insane. In the struggle one of the hands of Mrs. TRACY was nearly cut off.

AN APPLE WOMAN DROWNED.—A woman whose name is unknown, who has been in the habit of selling apples and candies about the wharves, yesterday lay down on the string-piece of one of the East River Piers, and, falling asleep, fell into the water and was drowned. The body was recovered, and an inquest held by Coroner JACKMAN, which resulted in a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

FALL FROM A THIRD-STORY WINDOW.—JOHN SHARKEY, a boy 6 years old, yesterday fell out of a third-story window of his parents' residence, No. 300 West Eighteenth-street, sustaining a fracture of the skull, which will probably prove fatal.

AN UNKNOWN WOMAN DROWNED.—An unknown woman, of a late hour on Thursday evening, fell into the dock at the foot of Montgomery-street, and was drowned before assistance could be extended to her. The body was recovered, and an inquest will be held to-day.

FIRE IN THIRD-AVENUE.—The alarm in the Third District at 2½ o'clock P. M., yesterday, was caused by a fire in the pattern-shop of the Jackson Iron Rolling Company, on the corner of Third-avenue and Thirty-fifth-street. Damage about $5,000; no insurance.

FIRE IN LAURENS-STREET.—Several small children were playing in a room on the upper portion of the premises No. 94 Laurens-street, at 7 o'clock last evening, when they accidentally set fire to a bed. A policeman extinguished the flames. Damage trifling.

PARADE OF THE SEVENTY-FIRST REGIMENT.—The above Regiment (about 600 muskets) will go over to Coney Washington—their old camp ground—on Staten Island, on Monday next, by the 9 o'clock [illegible] for the purpose of parading and having a sham by which Mr. O'BRIEN will subsequently be escorted to the Vigo, the steamer on which he sails. The military, under the command of Col. RYAN, have chartered the steamer Francis Skiddy, on which, accompanied by several other boats and barges, they will convoy the Vigo to Sandy Hook. The Francis Skiddy will lie at Pier No. 2 North River, until the hour of sailing, and admission will be by tickets furnished by the military authorities. There will be three bands on board, Capt. McKenzie's Artillery Company will fire salutes on the voyage down the Bay. There will be a parting address by Col. RYAN, and then Mr. O'BRIEN will bid farewell to his countrymen and friends.

Police Reports.

A DOZEN HOURS SUFFICIENT.—The Police of the Fifth Ward, at one o'clock yesterday morning, paid a surprise visit to a negro dance-house, at No. 59 Worth-street, and arrested twenty-two men and eighteen females, of all ages and shades of color. John Sewell, the proprietor, was absent, and escaped arrest. His wife, who presided in his absence, was, however, among the arrested ones. The prisoners were taken yesterday before Justice WELSH, and with one exception, were all discharged, there being no evidence of improper conduct on their part.

STEALING A WATCH.—Conrad Reichmerder, living in Henry-street, on Friday evening stopped to talk with one SUSAN WILLIAMS, and afterwards discovered that he had lost his gold watch and chain. Susan was arrested on charge of having stolen the watch and appendage, and committed for trial by Justice SUTTON.

BROOKLYN INTELLIGENCE.

THE PARK COMMISSIONERS.—An act passed the last Legislature appointing certain gentlemen therein named as a Board of Commissioners, with certain powers as to selecting public parks in Kings County. The Commissioners organized on the first Monday in May, and appointed sub-committees to make reports. At the meeting held the present week no regular report was made, but there was a general interchange of views, from which we gather that, in the Western section four park sites are seriously contemplated: One on the meadows in Gowanus, between 9th and 9th streets and 3d and 4th avenues; one in Petch-in the Tenth Ward, facetiously called "Petch Park" sometimes; the vacant lots on the Heights and a parade-ground at East New-York for the military. This latter place contains thirty acres, and can be purchased at a reasonable price, and the purchasing of it for military purposes has been a favorite scheme with Major-General DURYEA for several years past, and meets with little or no opposition. The ground is a level plain and has been used as a parade-field from before the Revolution till now. A Public Garden at Greenpoint and two Parks for the Eastern District, are all that are under consideration at the present time for that part of the city.

PICKPOCKETS ARRESTED.—Two female pickpockets stopped an elderly woman, named CURRIE, on Nassau, near Washington-street, yesterday, between 2 and 3 o'clock P. M., and robbed her of a portmonnaie containing $6 in bills and took a pair of gold spectacles from her face. The girls immediately attempted to escape to New-York, where they belong, but the Police were promptly informed of the robbery, and soon after the thieves were captured in the Second Precinct. They were taken to the Station-house, where, upon the person of one who calls herself JANE KENNEDAY, the money was found, but not the spectacles or portmonnaie. The other girl gave her name as AMELIA STEVENSON. They will be tried before Justice CARPENTER this morning.

THEY PROPOSE TO ENFORCE THE ORDINANCES.—The new Corporation Counsellor, ALEXANDER MCCUE, is determined that another effort shall be made to enforce the city ordinances, and, in consonance with this determination, the Deputy Superintendent of Police has issued the following order to the respective Police Captains: "Sir: You will cause notice to be served on all parties in your Precinct violating the city ordinances in relation to obstructing the streets and sidewalks, or placing any projections from the fronts of their buildings, other than allowed by the ordinances; to have the same removed, and, if not removed within a reasonable time, you will report the same to this office."

BURGLARIES.—At about 3 o'clock yesterday morning, a thief entered the house of Mr. BARRON, on Hampden-street, near Myrtle-avenue, and carried off money and silver ware to the value of $75 or more. The impudent rascal entered the bedroom of Mr. BARRON, and stole a portion of the money from his pants. Mrs. B. watched the proceedings with considerable interest, but was afraid to awake her husband for fear he might get killed. The thief having obtained all he wanted, left unmolested. The house of S. H. MOORE, adjoining, was robbed on Wednesday of property valued at $30.

STUBBED HIS TOE.—A respectable gentleman named JAMES L. WILSON, residing in Lorimer-street, some months ago stubbed his toe against a City plank, laid over a City hole, and a good-natured Jury in the City Court yesterday awarded him $750 damages.

BASE BALL.—A match took place at Bedford, on Thursday, between the Pastime Base Ball Club, of Brooklyn, and the Ocean Club, of New-Utrecht. The result was: Runs—Pastime, 23; Ocean Club, 26. Nearly five thousand people witnessed the game.

ST. JAMES' SCHOOLS.—The pupils of this school, under the charge of the Christian Brothers, underwent a thorough and satisfactory examination this week, which was concluded by public exercises at the Athenæum on Thursday evening.

KINGS COUNTY COURT OF SESSIONS—BEFORE THE HON. S. D. MORRIS, COUNTY JUDGE, AND JUSTICES EDMONDS AND HOYT.—The criminal business of this Court was continued yesterday. Michael Dwyer, indicted for manslaughter in killing Thomas Shields, alias Mahan, with a pitchfork, in O'Donnell's stable, on Baltic-street, near Smith-street, was found guilty of manslaughter in the fourth degree, and sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the Penitentiary. The deceased was a drinking and quarrelsome man, while the prisoner was shown to be a quiet and industrious person, and was engaged at his legitimate business when the deceased made an unprovoked attack upon him. Henry T. Haskell, indicted for forgery in the second degree, was convicted of forgery in the third degree, and sentenced to two years' imprisonment in the State Prison at Sing Sing. James Donohoe was convicted of a felonious assault. Sentence suspended. Christian Reuter, indicted for assault and battery with intent to do bodily harm, was convicted of simple assault and battery. Owing to extenuating circumstances in the case, sentence was suspended. The Court adjourned till 10 o'clock this morning.

CITY COURT—BEFORE HON. R. D. OLIVER, CITY JUDGE, AND A JURY.—Thomas Wildes vs. The City of Brooklyn.—This is an action brought to recover damages for injuries sustained through the negligence of the agents of the City. The complaint sets forth specifically that Mr. WILDES was riding through Fifty-first-st. in the Eastern District, on the night of the 13th of November, 1858, and at the foot of South Eighth-street he was capsized into a hole made by the Corporation or agents, five feet deep, and his horse falling upon him he received serious and permanent injuries for which he asks the sum of $10,000, or any less sum a jury may see fit to award him. Case still on. For plaintiff, E. T. WOOD and Ex-Attorney General CUNNINGHAM; for defence, Corporation Counsellor, assisted by J. M. VAN COTT, Esq.

SUPREME COURT.—A Special Term of the Supreme Court will be held at the City Hall on the 30th inst.

American Mechanism.

The inventive genius of our countrymen has supplied the world with almost every labor-saving machine and artistic mechanical contrivance which is of sufficient importance to be ranked as a marked feature of the age's progress; and it is a noticeable fact that while the inventive spirit of the Old World for the most part exhausts itself in the contriving of new articles of ornament, luxury and scientific curiosities, that of the New is almost exclusively devoted to the cause of practical utility. The European artisan will give his time and talent to the construction of a new harp, while the American will study out some combination of mechanical principles for the more expeditious shelling of corn, or some other purpose. Among the American machines which have the most world-wide use and reputation are FAIRBANKS' Platform Scales.

It is now about thirty years since THADDEUS FAIRBANKS, one of the senior partners of the present firm of FAIRBANKS & Co., made and patented the first platform scale, and the business of the house, in scales alone, has now reached the vast amount of nearly $1,500,000 annually. The various descriptions of their platform scales are comprised in every size and form, from the mammoth contrivance of a canal lock scale, capable of weighing 500 tons, to the delicate balance for purposes of chemical analysis, in which the weight of a thousandth part of a grain is marked by a sensible deflection. The system of their scales has established uniform weights all over the country—a national benefit—and they have become the "legalized standard."

Such is the absolute perfection and truthfulness to which the mechanism of these scales has been brought, that the elasticity of metals of which it is constructed, and their liability to yield under heavy strains, have been centrally counteracted, so that the indications are precisely alike, no matter on what part of the platform the weight is placed.

But these Scales have not alone vindicated and established their superiority all over America, for they have conquered their way into Europe and Asia. Messrs. FAIRBANKS & Co. manufacture them adapted to the "standard of all civilized nations"—even of China, to which country they ship large numbers. They manufacture them to the standard of all European nations, and they are in general use over that continent.

A member of the firm is in the City this season for the purpose of making arrangements for a great enlargement of their trade here. He has already taken a building at No. 93 Camp-street, where he will open an extensive scale warehouse, in which no less than one hundred modifications of Fairbanks' Scales will be offered for sale.—New-Orleans Crescent.

KNOWN EFFECT.—When pain or inflammation is present in a human body, and BRANDRETH'S PILLS are used, they at once seize upon the humors which are the occasion of the pain or inflammation, and remove them from the body. And they cannot fail to do this, because their power is only upon and over those humors and impurities which are unhealthy (wants life), and whose presence in a part causes the pain and burning heat. So in sore throat, croup, colds, coughs, rheumatism, pain in the side and pleurisy, which are all cured by from one to three dozen of these pills, whole power is only exerted to REMOVE IMPURITIES FROM THE BLOOD. The rightly-directed will use them and be cured. Sold at Dr. BRANDRETH'S Office, No. 294 Canal-street; BRANDRETH'S, No. 200 Bowery, and by all Druggists. Price 25 cents a box.

SPIRIT "RAPPINGS" vs. "KNOX."—While the "raps" of departed spirits seem to have entirely lost their effect upon the public credulity, the "Knox" on Broadway continues to excite the wonder of all classes of the community. Of course we mean KNOX, the great hat manufacturer, of No. 212 Broadway, corner of Fulton-street. "The Pride of Youth," for boys, and his other styles for men, are unequaled in the City.

FRIDAY, May 27—P. M.

The firmness on the Stock Exchange noticed for some days past appeared to increase quite materially to-day, particularly on the New-York Central and Western shares. The additional advance in Central is 1 ⅌ cent., and in Illinois Central, at one time, 4 ⅌ cent. on yesterday's sales. The former left off 74 ⅌ cent. sales. The latter, after selling up to 59½ ⅌ cent., closed 57½, as against 53¼@55 yesterday. The Bonds of the Company were 1 ⅌ cent. higher. In Rock Island a considerable eagerness was shown at the early Board to put out short options at 61 ⅌ cent., and some cash bargains were done at 62@62½, and soon after the adjournment 63@63½ ⅌ cent. was paid in the Street. In the afternoon the price fell back to 62 ⅌ cent. cash, and 61 seller 10 days. There was a rise of 1½ ⅌ cent. in Michigan Central, and ¼@½ ⅌ cent. in Galena. Toledo went up to 28¾@¾ ⅌ cent. Reading was also better, and Pacific and Panama firm at the close at yesterday's prices. There was less done than usual in State Stocks. Missouris steady at 83¼@84; Virginias, 96¾. In United States 5s a small sale this afternoon at 103¾ for the coupon bonds, and 105 for the registered stock. The general market left off firm, except in Erie Shares and Bonds, which continue to show great weakness.

MR. RICHARD COBDEN, the distinguished member of the English Parliament, now about closing his visit to this country, was in the Stock Exchange this forenoon for half an hour, during the early session of the Brokers.

In the Money Market, to-day, we hear of sales of sixty-day acceptances, very choice names, at 6 ⅌ cent. A line of prime four-months' bills was sold at 6 ⅌ cent. The exceptions being in favor of sixty-day bills of prime credit. Demand loans are easy at 5 ⅌ cent. on first-class stocks, and 6 ⅌ cent. on pledge of bills receivable. The receipts of specie from the near cities and from the West and South continue liberal, both by express and through drafts on the Sub-Treasury. The [illegible] for the Aroostook [illegible]
